

Vice President for Institutional Effectiveness

The AWP Group, an executive search firm specializing in building higher education leadership teams, has partnered with The Institute of Psychological Sciences and invites nominations and applications for the position of Vice President for Institutional Effectiveness. The Institute is a free-standing, professional school offering M.S. and Psy.D. degrees in clinical psychology. The Institute is committed to the fruitful integration of sound science and effective practice in psychology with a Catholic perspective on the nature of the person, marriage, family, and the moral life.

This position requires extensive knowledge of the accreditation process. The Vice President for Institutional Effectiveness (VPIE) will be the liaison to accreditation and all regulatory agencies. The VPIE is responsible for coordinating and assuring the preparation and review of reports submitted to federal, state, and local government and other external agencies.

Applicants must have demonstrated experience in database management, and excellent written and oral communications skills are required. Extensive knowledge of the accreditation process and successful experience assisting higher educational institutions with the accreditation process, specifically the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges is essential for this position.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Compensation is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Send nominations or letters of application and vita to: Bill Peterson, Senior Partner, The AWP Group, via email bpeterson@theawpgroup.com.
